Description

Pre-bidding continues until April 23, 2026, 7:00 PM.

The live auction begins on April 23, 2026, 7:00 PM.

The Spring Fine Art Auction presents a carefully curated selection of outstanding works from Polish post-war and contemporary art, bringing together established names with artists actively shaping today's visual language.

At the core of the sale are works by artists with strong museum presence and proven market standing. Monumental compositions by Edward Dwurnik reveal his distinctive, narrative vision of reality. The inclusion of Jerzy Nowosielski introduces a dimension of formal synthesis and spiritual depth, representing one of the most significant achievements of 20th-century Polish painting.

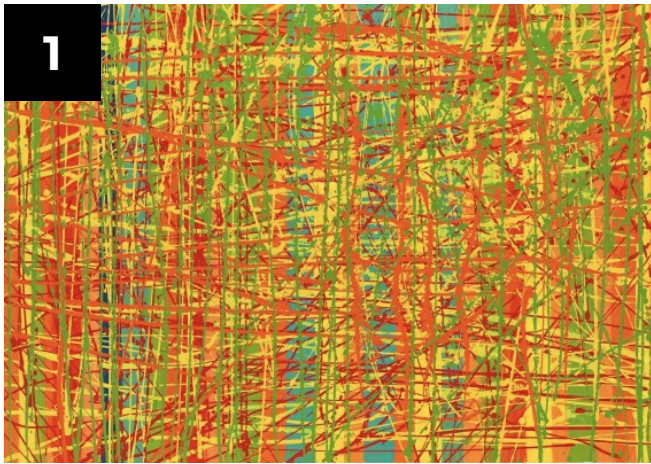

A key highlight of the catalogue is formed by works rooted in the metaphor—by Tomasz Sętowski and Rafał Olbiński—whose recognizable visual language carries strong collector appeal. In this selection are works by Stanisław Fijałkowski and Kamil, engaging with formal reflection and contemporary abstract

The works on paper section features Zdzisław Beksiński and Andrzej Strumiłło, offering distinctive and highly individual visual narratives. The selection is completed by a sculpture by Igor Mitoraj—an artist of international renown, whose classicizing form remains one of the most recognizable codes of contemporary sculpture.
